

Family and Consumer Sciences ~ Education for a Lifetime

P. Buckley Moss Print
Honoring Family and Consumer Sciences Education
Available from Virginia FCCLA

The Virginia FCCLA Leadership Foundation is proud to offer for sale this limited edition print by P. Buckley Moss, depicting a Family and Consumer Sciences classroom. In the wonderful tradition of this renowned artist, the print is a timeless testimony to the important role of FACS education in developing leaders in families, careers, and communities. The print is approximately 8" X 8". Note that the text shown in the sample above will be featured on the print but not in the format used in this sample.

A limited-time offer is being extended to allow purchase at a reduced price of 2 prints for $75. These make a great gift to honor a member, adviser, or supporter of your chapter. Prints may also be re-sold by local chapters and state associations for up to $80 each, with you keeping the profit!
