Virginia FCCLA members attending the State Leadership and Recognition Conference are needed to serve as general session hosts. Qualifications include punctuality, enthusiasm, responsibility, friendliness, and a willingness to meet new people! Chapters are encouraged to select one or two members to serve as a host. Hosts will be assigned to a specific session during an orientation meeting from 4:00 – 4:30 p.m. on Friday, April 10. Please check the conference program onsite for specific meeting room location.

Please note: the position of host is different from that of STAR Attendant.
