

FCCLA Day at the State Fair

SOL Scavenger Hunt

October 1, 2026

Welcome to the FCCLA Day at the State Fair. Visit the buildings listed below and answer the questions to learn something about Virginia and how FCCLA relates to life in our Virginia communities. Questions may be completed in any order.

Meadow Pavilion (#1 on Educational Expo Stop)

Stop by the Virginia Grain Producers Association - take your turn at the Wheel of Facts. What is one thing you learned?

Stop by the Virginia Beekeepers Exhibit to learn about the importance of pollination for our food supply. What are three foods that honey can be used to make?

1.
2.
3.

Student Garden Competitions (#2 on Educational Expo Stop)

What is the theme for this year's Student Garden Competition?

Which garden did you like the best and why?

Horticulture Pavilion (#2 on Educational Expo Stop)

How big is the biggest pumpkin at the State Fair of Virginia?

At the Farmer's Garden and Pizza Garden, what is being grown that you enjoy eating? What is your favorite pizza topping? What pizza topping is your least favorite?

Heritage Village (#9 on Educational Expo Stop)

1. Explore the changes in technology and lifestyles that have taken place in America. What are two exhibits/activities found here?
2. How has one of these “inventions” impacted your life in a positive way?

Young McDonald’s Farm (#7 on Educational Expo Stop)

What are four animals on exhibit at the farm?

What animals have actually been born during the week of the farm?

Southland Dairy Pavilion (#6 on Educational Expo Stop)

What are three things that you have learned about dairy cows and where milk comes from?

Natural Resources Area in the Farm Bureau Center (#10 on Educational Expo Stop)

What’s a career opportunity in Natural Resources that may be interesting? Why is it important?

FCCLA Tent (Located in the Best in Show Tent in the Harvest Landing Area)

1. When is the 2027 Virginia FCCLA State Leadership and Recognition Conference in Virginia Beach?
2. Get the signature of a member of the Virginia FCCLA State Executive Council (state officer).